Greetings,

The directors of The Cheatham Street Music Foundation and BIGfest 2010 would like to cordially invite you to participate in BIGfest 2010. Within the contents of this booklet you will find a brief summary of The Cheatham Street Foundation's Mission and the History of BIGfest.

As a sponsor of BIGfest 2010, you will receive ample advertising promoting your company and more importantly you will be helping the Cheatham Street Music Foundation reach its goals by making BIGfest 2010 a success.

BIGFest 2010 is a fundraising event, with all net proceeds donated to Cheatham Street Music Foundation. This event is a 3-day music festival to be held June 25-27, 2010, celebrating the anniversary of Cheatham Street Warehouse.

Cheatham Street Music Foundation is a Texas non-profit corporation dedicated to developing, promoting, preserving and perpetuating Texas music. Some of our planned activities include: acquiring, rehabilitating and preserving the historic San Marcos, Texas, Cheatham Street Warehouse building as a public venue for Texas music; conducting activities that promote the advancement of education in the art, craft and business of songwriting, including but not limited to songwriting classes, workshops, seminars, public forums, panels, lectures and similar programs; promoting, developing and nurturing songwriters and musicians through opportunities to perform and record music, and; encouraging a greater public understanding of the history of Texas music through community based interaction between songwriters, performance artists and civic and educational groups in order to foster a deeper appreciation of the role of music in the economic, social and cultural life of Texas. We continue to seek significant and diversified public support for all the above mentioned and related activities.

We appreciate your time to consider participation in BIGfest 2010. We look forward to your assistance in this annual fundraising event. Please review the contents of this packet and do not hesitate to contact us with any questions or need of additional information. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely

Sage Allen
CSMF Treasurer

BIGfest History

Big fest is a fundraising music festival for the Cheatham Street Warehouse Music Foundation, and a celebration of Big John Mills' birthday. This year's festival will be held in June, and will be a 3 day event, held in the historic Cheatham Street Warehouse in San Marcos Texas, where musicians such as George Strait, Todd Snider, and Randy Rogers got their start.

BIGfest began as a simple one day festival during the summer of 2006. With more than 40 artists and Randy Rogers & Brady Black closing the show, the event was a huge success. The response from both the artists that played, and the fans that attended, was so overwhelming; it was quickly determined that one day was not enough. June 2007 marked the first 3-day BIGfest.

BIGfest 2007 hosted more than 130 artists over 3 three day festival. 2007 was also the first year that there was a silent auction at BIGfest. Since then the silent auction has proved to be one of the biggest contributors to the fundraiser. Auction items often include autographed guitars, artwork, photos, posters, neon signs, artist gift packs, as well a collection of CDs by all artists that played at BIGfest. The silent auction often accounts for 30-50% of the BIGfest revenue.

Radio Free Texas began broadcasting the festival live in 2007. The Radio Free Texas Broadcast has allowed tens of thousands of fans to listen BIGfest live via the internet from all over the world. In 2007 approximately 2,500 people tuned in to BIGfest while 2009 had more than 5,000 listeners during the headliners. 2010 is expected to have more listeners than ever.

Over the last 3 years BIGfest has donated approximately $30,000 to The Cheatham Street Music Foundation. Sponsors are the key to the continued success of the festival. Sponsor donations are used to underwrite the event 100%. This allows 100% of money raised through ticket sales, food sales, and the silent auction to go directly to The Cheatham Street Music Foundation.

Artists who have played Bigfest include:

Randy Rogers, Brady Black, Big John Mills and the Texas Road Dawgs, Dr. G and the Mudcats, The Grant Ewing Band, Doug Moreland Band, Houston Marchman, the Dedrings, Texas Renegade, Two Tons of Steel, Max Stalling, John Arthur Martinez, Smokey Wilson, Bart Crow, Kent Finlay, Tony Taylor, Shad Blair, Jordan Minor, The Shake Russell Trio, Slaid Cleaves, Michael O'Connor, Dub Miller with Matt Skinner and Adam Odor, Graham Weber, Walt Wilkins, Tony Wilson, Missoula Slim, Nathan Daniel, Forest Wayne Allen, Randy Meadows, Mark Zeus and Thunderboltz, The Lucky Tomblin Band (featuring John X Reed, Earl Poole Ball, and Redd Volkaert), Houston Marchman, Mark Zeus, Tyler McCumber, Jamie Talbert, and Matt Harlan, John Evans, Tres Womack, and Jimmy Baldwin song swap, Dan Crump, Robin English, Mike Ethan Messick, HalleyAnna, Loyd Bonham Band, Rex Robards and the Barefoot Cowboy Band, David Lee Kaiser and the Joint Chiefs, Jimmy Kaiser Band, Keith Davis Band, Paul Eason Band, and many more!

Cheatham Street Music Foundation

Cheatham Street Music Foundation is a non-profit organization dedicated to developing, promoting, preserving, and perpetuating Texas music. Born of the decades of music made at the legendary Cheatham Street Warehouse, the CSMF is particularly involved in the art, craft, and business of songwriting.

Our goal is to promote the advancement of education in songwriting by conducting songwriting classes, workshops, seminars, public forums, panels, lectures, concerts and similar programs. Some of these programs are ongoing, and the rest will be launched in 2010. We will also perpetuate the legacy of the Cheatham Street Warehouse by promoting, developing and nurturing songwriters and musicians through opportunities to perform music and participate in songwriting contests.

According to Casey Monahan, director of the Texas Music Office, "Cheatham Street has played a pivotal role in commercializing new country music in Central Texas. Young artists at Cheatham Street are provided with an enthusiastic crowd, an historic stage, and the sage advice of a wise music industry professional, owner Kent Finlay. Many 'baby bands' have developed longtime fans through the exposure they gained at Cheatham Street Warehouse."

We hope that by encouraging a greater public understanding of the history of Texas music through community-based interaction between songwriters, performance artists, and civic and educational groups, we can foster a deeper appreciation of the role of music in the economic, social, and cultural life of Texas.

CSMF's current goal is to purchase, renovate, and preserve the historic Cheatham Street Warehouse property in order to perpetuate and carry forward the work of Kent Finlay, a long-time mentor and promoter of Texas songwriters and musicians. Cheatham Street Warehouse, a business venture owned by Finlay, has been an incubator for emerging Texas songwriters for nearly 30 years. In 2005, the Warehouse property was purchased by Gregg Andrews, a San Marcos musician and professor of history at Texas State University, in order to save it from demolition and redevelopment. (Finlay leases the building.)

Kent Finlay has donated nearly $16,500 to the organization to date – all of the 2007 and 2008 proceeds from Cheatham Street Warehouse's annual events "BIGFest" and "Kent's Birthday Party".

CSMF now needs to raise $182,000 to purchase the property. It is important to note that the current owners, Gregg Andrews and his wife Vikki Bynum, will not profit from this transaction. According to Andrews, "It was always our intention to sell the property to the Foundation for what we paid and what we've put into it. For the past three years, the rent we've collected has just covered our mortgage payment. We're pleased to have been able to serve as stewards of this historic building while the Foundation raises the funds to acquire it."
